

8 GOLDEN RULES

Refuel in designated refueling areas only

Never walk under a suspended load

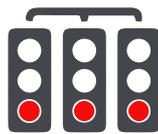

Wear the appropriate PPE for the task

Do not touch electrical installations or enter generator compounds

Follow the site traffic rules and speed limit

Never enter the track whilst its hot

Follow designated walking routes

Protect yourself from falling from height

As part of the accreditation process, you will be required to agree to the site safety rules and understand that you have read and acknowledged the information provided in the Online Safety Induction such as where the detailed evacuation routes and assembly points are. Please ensure you are familiar with these locations before arriving to site

For any further information on all Health & Safety matters, please contact the Formula E Health & Safety team.